Dear Potential Sponsor;

We are writing to invite you to consider becoming a sponsor of the New Mexico Conference of Churches' 2008 Turquoise Chalice Award and Benefit Dinner, which will be held at 6:00 P.M. on Friday, September 26, 2008 at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center in Albuquerque.

The recipient of the 2008 award will be Lee Maynard, President of the Board at The Storehouse. Since 2003 when Lee was asked by the New Mexico Conference of Churches to assess the situation at The Storehouse, he has worked diligently to keep The Storehouse open. At the time, The Storehouse was a decades-old nonprofit food pantry, struggling with financial difficulties. Drawing on his business and non-profit background, Lee along with the board and staff of The Storehouse revived the organization. Today, The Storehouse is the largest food pantry in New Mexico, providing more food to the hungry than at any time in the pantry's history.

Our entertainment for the evening will be provided by Al Staggs. Al is uniquely qualified to provide an inspiring humorous program for the Dinner as he was a minister and hospital chaplain prior to becoming a full-time performing artist.

New Mexico Conference of Churches (NMCC) is an ecumenical organization whose mission can be summarized as working to bring understanding and reconciliation among churches and working to provide justice and quality of life for all New Mexicans. The board consists of members from fourteen different regional church bodies, representing over 600,000 New Mexicans. You can find out more about NMCC and the Turquoise Chalice Award on our website www.nmchurches.org.

We hope you will consider becoming a sponsor for the 2008 Turquoise Chalice Award and Benefit Dinner of the New Mexico Conference of Churches. Please read the enclosed Sponsorship Opportunities sheet to see what you will receive for your sponsorship. If you already know that you would like to be a sponsor for our event, you will find a Sponsorship Commitment Form enclosed.

Thank you for considering our request.

Sincerely,

Sandy Burley
